What people are saying about Rick Tamlyn:

"Rick was amazing during our five-day Bigger Game adventure in ASEAN [August 2008]. His incredible stamina and energy is awe-inspiring. To see him strut his stuff in front of hundreds of people in each audience, inspiring and captivating them, demonstrates his mastery of the subject and public speaking skills at the highest level. His beliefs, his actions and his words epitomize what the Bigger Game philosophy is all about — to be in service of something grander than the self."

— Roy Chan, ASEAN Workforce Partner,
IBM Corporation

"Rick's ability to engage an audience had participants fully involved, enthusiastically learning and having fun. They left the session confident and motivated to utilize coach approach skills to become more effective leaders."

— Gail Ecker, Manager,
Leadership and Organizational Development, LCBO

"Our participants were meeting planners and hotel sales people who have heard dozens of speakers. Rick brought new insight and energy into a topic we can never hear enough about — Leadership. The attendees kept talking about Rick's 'humanness.' He wasn't afraid to be himself while talking to the group. I highly recommend Rick for any business meeting as a speaker."

— Diane Kaufman, Director of Intermediary Sales Strategy,
Marriott International

"Rick was the hit of our conference! His presentation was a powerful combination of self-deprecating humor, wisdom, and a message that truly called people forth to consider their Bigger Game. Rick's morning session got rave reviews, which caused his afternoon session to be packed! It was not only standing room only, every inch of the floor was packed, including people sitting on the floor right up to the stage — I was one of the people on the floor!"

— Mary Stultz, System Human Resources,
Fairview Leadership Development Center
